1. Author: Last name, First Name. If not given, omit and start with article title.

2. Article title in quotes.

3. Website title in italics.

4. Version: Normally does not apply. If used, appears after website title.

Griffin-Green, Megan. "5 'Healthy' Food Claims to Watch Out For." CBC News. CBC News/Radio-Canada, 13 February 2015. Web. 11 June 1016. <http://www.cbc.ca/news/health/5-healthy-food-claims-to-watch-out-for-1.2955149>

5. Publisher: If not given, use "n.p."

6. Date created. If not given, use "n.d."

7. Medium of publication

8. Date accessed

9. URL

Citation Example

Print this out to use as a reference while working on your research project.

For more examples, visit https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/08/